KEEP MEDICAID

Missed Deadline: You may lose coverage if the state can't find you or you missed a deadline. If you lose Medicaid because you didn't submit your renewal or information, you can submit within 90 days for your case to reopen. After that, you have to reapply.

Denied Medicaid: If you are denied Medicaid but think you should still be eligible, you may be able to get this corrected. Find local help to see what your options are.

FIND LOCAL HELP

You don't have to go through this alone — community organizations are standing by offering free assistance renewing health coverage or exploring new options.

#SickOfItTX: The "Get Help" tool to see what options are available. SOIT has other resources for you and your family.

Texas Community Partner Program: Find a local group to help you with your application!

Healthcare.gov: Find local help for health insurance that may be available.

OTHER COVERAGE OPTIONS

If you are no longer eligible for Medicaid, there may be other affordable health coverage options for you and your family!

Low-cost, high-quality insurance is available on HealthCare.Gov for eligible adults and children. If you are no longer eligible for Medicaid, your information will be sent to HealthCare.Gov. You can apply now for HealthCare.gov, or wait for your notice that your case has been transferred. From 3/31/23 - 7/31/24, HealthCare.Gov will provide flexibility for Marketplace-eligible consumers who lose Medicaid or CHIP to enroll in Marketplace coverage.

Job-Based Insurance may be available for you and your family. Check with your employer! If available, you'll have 60 days after losing Medicaid or CHIP to enroll!
